Mary Prowell born 6-1-1902
died - 1983

W. D. Prowell married Mary Emma Cox 1871

Terrell and George Daniel; Kathryn Jane, who attended St. Mary's College in Memphis, Tennessee, is the wife of Dr. John Munal, of Holdenville, Oklahoma, and they have an adopted son, Robert Lee Munal; and Florence Rhodes, the youngest daughter, is at home. Mrs. Terrell is a talented musician. She is very active in the Parent-Teachers Association, in various women's organizations, in the Literary Club of Benoit and in the church societies. Mr. and Mrs. Terrell have membership in the Christian church and he is also identified with the Masonic fraternity.

Aside from his business activities already mentioned, Mr. Terrell was one of the organizers of the Bank of Benoit and was its efficient and honored president for twenty years, establishing and continuing the institution upon a safe, reliable basis. He has found time for public service and is now president of the Clear Creek drainage district and president of the Benoit school board, working consistently for the improvement of the schools and the continuance of the high standards on which they are now maintained. In 1902 he built his present attractive home, which is one of the social centers of the Benoit area, justly celebrated for its gracious hospitality. He enjoys all sporting events and thus gains his recreation but the major part of his time and attention is given to the management of the four plantations now under his control and which bear every evidence of his business ability.

JACK MUNFORD MONTGOMERY

SINCE 1918 JACK MUNFORD MONTGOMERY has been associated with the business interests of Sunflower County. Making his home in Inverness, he is connected with cotton production, the crop which constitutes a major source of the prosperity of the state. He is a native son of North Carolina, born in 1891, his parents being Albert and Mary (Prowell) Montgomery. The father, a native of Starkville, Mississippi, was the son of Colonel W. B. Montgomery, a distinguished citizen of this state, who was the founder of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Albert Montgomery devoted his life to plantation interests and to the exportation of cotton.

Jack M. Montgomery began his education in the public schools of Meridian, continued his studies in Southwestern College and then went to Poughkeepsie, New York, to attend Eastman's Business College. With his return to the South he became connected with the Dunlop Milling Company of Tennessee in 1917 and in 1918 entered upon active association with the wholesale brokerage business at Meridian. Since 1918, a resident of Iverness, he has been identified with cotton interests and has comprehensive knowledge of all that pertains to the production and handling of the crop. Close application and a spirit of enterprise have constituted the firm foundation upon which he has built his increasing success as the years have gone by.

In 1917 Mr. Montgomery married Miss Lady Mildred Baird, who attended All Saints School of Vicksburg and later the Scutter School of New York. They have a family of four children: Mildred, who is a student in the University of Mississippi; Mary Virginia, a student at Brenau College, Gainesville, Georgia; Sue, a pupil in the Inverness High School, and Jack, who is also a high school student. Mrs. Montgomery belongs to women's clubs and is much interested in all that pertains to intellectual and cultural progress of the community. Mr. Montgomery has given substantial proof of his desire for educational progress by serving for nine years on the Inverness School Board. He belongs to the Rotary Club and to the Episcopal church, and has done much to further those measures or organizations which promote the best interests of the community. In the social circles of the country, he and his wife occupy an enviable position, while their own home displays that generous hospitality so characteristic of the southland.

VICTOR BERNARD MONTGOMERY

Victor Bernard Montgomery, an acknowledged leader in the professional and business circles of Belzoni, is engaged in the practice of law, and is also a well-known representative of the banking interests of his city. Born in Yazoo County, on the twenty-third of January, 1890, he is a son of William Alexander and Sallie Elizabeth (Warren) Montgomery, the latter of Leake County. The father was a cotton buyer and farmer, who ranked as a substantial and valued citizen of his community and who was known as a loyal member of the Woodmen of the World and of the Presbyterian church.

Victor B. Montgomery completed his public school course by graduation from the Yazoo City schools in 1906 and then entered Mississippi College, where he pursued his classical course, winning the bachelor of arts degree. He studied law in the University of Mississippi, gaining his LL.B. degree in 1913, after which he went to Gulfport and was associated in practice with Judge George S. Doods until he became engaged in war service in 1918 as a physical director in connection with the Young Men's Christian Association work. In 1919 he removed to Belzoni and practiced as a member of the firm of Montgomery & Montgomery in Belzoni and Yazoo City. He is well-informed on the various branches of the law, prepares his cases carefully and thoroughly and presents his cause before the courts in a clear and logical manner.

In 1920 Mr. Montgomery was married to Miss Nola Belle Campbell of Silver City, a daughter of W. E. Campbell and Susie Lumbley Campbell. They attend the Methodist church of which they are faithful members and active workers. Mr. Montgomery has served on the church board of stewards, on the finance committee, as superintendent of the Sunday school and in other official capacities. He is
